Heads of All State Institutions Meet With Cliff Green

Uniform Specifications And Grades Advocated For Efficiency

Operating units under the jurisdiction of the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions have problems common to all, and particularly that of supply and food, and a quarterly meeting of the Superintendents of these institutions is held, first with one and then with another, so that meetings are rotated.

The current quarterly meeting was held with Superintendent Cliff Green of the Glades State Prison Farm on Thursday, with standardization of grades on meats and specifications on purchases a primary consideration.

Coordinator Terry C. Lee and Supply Clerk, Dan W. D'Almeida, for these and other reasons, stated that standard grades and specifications will allow more quantity purchases of similar articles now used by several institutions and a natural loosening of details and probable savings.

The shipment of meat from the Belle Glade Farm recently to other institutions marked the first time one organization has been able to more than supply its own needs in meat, and it was an expanding program of Mr. Green's at Belle Glade.

One Superintendent answered "Sure, and it was fine." Asked if he knew absolutely if institutions and particularly those in the absence of any marking, another Superintendent remarked, "Well, that's what we received extra good meat, because it did come from Belle Glade."

Coast Glades Will Begin League Play Here On April 12

Manager Art Parks announces that the first game of the Coast-Glades League played by the local team will be on Wednesday, April 12th, subject to further confirmation by the overall schedule committee of the League.

St. Augustine, league star pitcher and field captain, was elected Treasurer of the organization at a meeting held Wednesday night, and reported that eighteen sponsors have signed up and paid in the $35 necessary for the sponsorship. "Eighteen teams have been ordered and the letterings for the names of sponsors are expected to be on hand by the time the teams are so ready for the first game."

"Our boys are certain to be in the running, if the showing made so far is a sample of the play we will get," said manager Parks.

The officials name of our local team at the time voted on that at the recent meeting. Sponsors and team roster will be published next week.

The Ladies County League Golfers will resume their spring Tournament play starting Monday.

The Belle Glade golfers will take on the Lake Worth girls in the first matches to be played. Our girls should be able to play good golf as they have had several months to practice, since playing in the county league.

Ladies Day at the Country Club has been changed to Wednesday, as we hope some of the girls will be able to attend, who could not get out on Friday.

The new pro reports that the girls have been top-splashed and should be in good shape soon.

HUGH BRATLEY HONORED WITH COMMITTEE JOB IN STATE ORGANIZATION

Hugh J. Bratley, Secretary of the Everglades Federal Savings and Loan Association of Belle Glade received word of his appointment to the Committee to Study Over-the-Counter Life Insurance Proposals of the United States Savings and Loan League. The appointment came from Charles L. Clements, Miami Beach, Florida, president of the League, which is the 91-year-old, nationwide trade organization of the savings association business.

The Committee to Study Over-the-Counter Life Insurance Proposals is dealing with a problem which has had increasing attention in the thrift institutions in this generation.

CLOSE AND JONES ELECTED

Herman Close was elected President and Claudia Jones was elected Secretary of the Palm Beach County League of Municipalities at its regular meeting Wednesday.

All Cities and Towns in the County belong to this organization and a majority of those in the State belong to similar organizations.

Matters of mutual concern are dealt with by these organizations, and particularly those of legislative consideration.

"Avenues A And B One-Way Or Not" Asks Committee

The recently organized Traffic Committee has a question dumped into its lap that is the subject of considerable conversation in Belle Glade at present—whether to make Avenues A and B one way or not? This is a part of the semiannual problem of the merchants on Avenue A—what to do with traffic: One six-month's period there's parallel parking, then angle parking, then some other suggestion; now, comes the one-way business.

The Traffic Committee composed of local civic groups has undertaken to secure the expression of opinion from local clubs, and consequently has started conversation.

The Committee did recommend:

- (1) Make no changes in the present speed restrictions or other traffic regulations now in effect in the school zone.
- (2) Install light on north side of Hillsboro Canal at bridge, to be coordinated with the light on south side. This light has been purchased and will be installed.
- (3) Studying advisability of installing signal lights at South Main and P. and at Airport Road on North Main, be continued;
- (4) Recommended one-way bridge on Avenue B at 9th Street be replaced and provided with a walk-way;
- (5) Continue study of location for an additional bridge over Hillsboro Canal, which is tentatively Northwest 9th Street, from which a direct street south from Redwing to Avenue A will lead.

The Committee met Thursday night at the City Hall, with a number of discussion of the items on the program.

Club Women Hold New Member Party

Mrs. Maurice Hart, of Miami, who was a charter member of the Belle Glade Women's Club, was introduced by Mrs. J. L. Freedlund, at the meeting of the Women's Club held Wednesday afternoon honoring new members.

Mrs. Hart told of her trip last winter through South American countries, where there were 28 clubs represented by the General Federation of Women's Clubs. She displayed souvenirs from her visit to Peru, and also told of a student from Peru she is sponsoring at the University of Miami.

Following the talk by Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Sterling Hunter, wife of Presbyterian minister in Miami, was introduced and gave an interesting talk on "Our America." She told of the seven wonders of our country, and how America is made up of people of different countries and how Americans were starting their own culture; in music, swimming, hillbilly, cowboy, as well as classical music.

Speaking of our own language, Mrs. Hunter stated that sometimes it becomes "danglish." She also told of helping foreigners their thoughts.

Despite the normal casualties and the recent frosting of considerable acreage around the Lake, there seems to be approximately 20,000 acres of corn already harvested, being harvested in the next two months, according to informed packing house and brokerage organizations.

With 4,000 to 225 packed crate yield per acre and a price of $2.25 currently there is a profit for the farmer, though not a tonnage. The quality, generally is good, and "good" for the muck sweet corn means the best there is.

Beans are coming into what seems to be a good spring market, and indications are that they will continue to be "good merchandise" for the spring season. From $2.50 to $3.00 on Wednesday seemed to be the prevailing price.

Celery is moving at a small price, with some celery, chloery, and remains doing the same. Radishes are moving, but not with a great deal of profit.

Altogether the exhibitors were of a more than average class, with a unique display of fabrics by the Forest Fabric Shop.

Churches of Christ, Scientists Theme of services to be held next Sunday in all Christian Science churches is that the light of spiritual understanding reveals the unreality of that which is opposed to God. Subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "UNREALITY."

A verse from II Samuel (22:29) provides the Golden Text: "Thou art my lamp, O Lord: He taught these subjects for and the Lord will lighten my darkness."

Selections to be read from the Bible include the following: "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; ... (I Corinthians 10:13).

Passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Sin should become unreal to every one. ... Its supposed realism has no divine authority, and I rejoice in the apprehension of this grand verity"

Come to Church Easter

THIS WEEK'S SERMONETTE RELIGION RESTS ON REASON By JOHN CLARENCE PETRIE

Vicar, The Church of the Holy Nativity, Pahokee and St. Martin's Church, Clewiston
Spiritual Leader the Belle Glade Episcopalians

Religion rests ultimately on reason. Yet vast numbers of people think differently. They will tell you it rests on faith. This was parodied by the small boy who said, "Faith is believing what ain't so." It is true that certain specific teachings of the Christian Church are based on revelation. Among these are the doctrines that Jesus is both true God and true Man; and that God is three Persons yet only One God. Nevertheless we do not begin with those revealed truths—we begin with the truths discovered by reason and then go on to revelation.

For instance, take the question of the existence of God. That is proved by reason. We take a good look at this old world of ours and then say to ourselves, "This thing did not make itself. It did not always exist. Time will come when it will be no more." Everything we know is like that. Once it was not. Sometime it will not be. In other words, everything is dependent on something else.

Well, not everything. Somewhere there must be something that does not depend on anything else for its existence; that always has been and always will be. That is God.

Now I have given only one of many arguments for God's existence. It is enough for our point. I might go on and show you how we can prove the immortality of the soul by reason. Also the existence of the law of good and evil—the moral law kindling all human beings. We arrive at the deity of Christ by reason. We do not ask you to start out taking the Bible as the word of God on our say so. We begin treating it as fairly dependable human literature. Then as we study the record of the life of Jesus we come to see that He is more than man—that He is God also. Then we see that He founded the Church and that it is the Church which teaches us the articles of the Creed, tells us the Bible is inspired, and provides us the means of saving our immortal souls.

One last illustration. The New England sage, Ralph Waldo Emerson, put into one sentence something that will stand you in good stead any time you are inclined to doubt that you are the child of another world. Said he, "You tell me life is mean. Granted. But how did you find it out?"

That is the sentence, that question, "How did you find it out?" If you were only an animal you would not know it. Dogs do not know they are animals. Savages do not know they are savages. When you call yourself an animal you prove you are something else. It is as though you were two people. As Number One you act on the stage. As Number Two you sit in the audience and watch yourself, pass judgment on yourself. Call yourself a beast—or a miserable sinner.

Only man can do that. We say that, he transcends himself. It is because he has two viewpoints—that of this earth, and that of the realm of spirit.

Religion does not rest on blind faith. It rests basically on reason.

EASTER

Rising above the false to the true evidence of Life, is the resurrection, that takes hold of eternal Truth.

— Mary Baker Eddy.
This is the wonder of the Resurrection.

That things unvalued now reveal their worth.

— Lucy Larcom.
I know I am deathless.

— Walt Whitman.
There is a Resurrection Life
That I must share

— Henry Park Schaeffler.
"We shall sleep," was the sigh of the midnight.

"True shall rise" is the song of today. — Francis L. Macer.
But Easter Day breaks! But Christ rises!

Mercy every way is infinite.
— Robert Browning.
